

CONDAMINE VALLEY/WARWICK BRANCH BURSARY

The Condamine Valley/Warwick Branch offers three bursaries to students commencing full time tertiary studies whose home address is in the QCWA Border Division. This year, we are pleased to offer this also to Goondiwindi students. The bursary is to be administered by the QCWA Border Division Executive. QCWA reserves the right to limit the period over which a Bursary is granted to any one student. Both male and female students, who are experiencing financial difficulties, are invited to make an application for a Bursary of $1500 each.

Applicants to submit:

- (i) Written proof of achievement
- (ii) Demonstrate the need for financial support
- (iii) Three written, current character references
- (iv) Details of continuing support
- (v) Short (500 word) resume of applicant's achievements and future aspirations

Applications forms are available online – www.qcwa.org.au or through QCWA State Office on (07) 3026 1220.

Applications close 19 January 2020.
