

Mallalieu Home Foundation Trust Scholarships are awarded annually. Up to four (4) scholarships of $500 each may be awarded.

Music students attending and studying music at the Queensland Conservatorium, etc are eligible to apply. The Scholarship is intended to assist with the costs of accommodation while attending the student's music studies. Scholarships are awarded to students from each year, one each from 1st to 4th year of study.

Applicants must submit:

- Completed application form
- Academic transcript that details your achievements
- Demonstrated need for financial support
- Three (3) current character references

QCWA reserves the right to award this bursary one-time or may award it annually over a period of future years (to be determined).

QCWA will arrange a presentation function for the bursary and recipients will be asked to attend. Family and friends are welcome to attend.

As part of the Mallalieu Home Foundation Trust Scholarships, recipients may be asked to assist the Association by volunteering their time and skills to special events or projects.

Applications close on 31st January annually.
