

The Queensland Country Women's Association Pioneer Division is offering a bursary annually of $1,000 to a student whose home address is within the area covered by Pioneer Division (Collinsville & Bowen to the north, Carmilla to the south and Nebo to the west, as well as Mackay district).

Applications are invited from students who are undertaking tertiary studies but who could be experiencing financial difficulties.

This bursary is to be administered by the Queensland Country Women's Association (QCWA) State Executive and both male and female students are encouraged to apply.

Applicants must submit:

- Completed application form
- Academic transcript that details your achievements
- Demonstrated need for financial support
- Three (3) current character references

QCWA reserves the right to limit the period over which a bursary is granted to any one student.

QCWA will arrange a presentation function for the bursary and recipients will be asked to attend. Family and friends are welcome to attend.

Applications close on 31st January annually.
