

2024 International Study Conference

MOROCCO

“Come to the Souk” ...agenda

Friday February 16:

Registration opens 11am

On sale at each break: raffles for the day, State Stock, including International and Product of the Year tea towels and interesting new stock items. Raffle cost is $2 per ticket.

Tickets will be sold for each day, with a draw at the end of each day's presentations, and a special draw held at the Conference Dinner.

Show and Tell table available to display items sourced from delegates treasures

Country Kitchens Display & interaction with delegates

ACWW Triennial Conference: photo display MEMORIES OF MOROCCO : photo display

12 noon Lunch. During the lunch break ensure you've purchased your raffle tickets and visited the other display tables – sit next to someone you don't know!

12.50 Please take your seat ready to start proceedings.

Opening Session:

Welcome 1pm

Western Downs Regional Council representative Daniel Fletcher, General Manager – Community to carry out official opening (Councillors are in caretaker mode)

Acknowledgement of Country Thallon Daymar branch

Housekeeping & Conference rules including Founding Motto and Creed

1.15 Introducing the team ...

1.30 overview of MOROCCO – Barb McMillan

2pm Country Kitchens – sit less, move more

2.10 Trivia Quiz

2.30 Introducing CAMELS...

3PM TEA: Please make an effort to introduce yourself to at least two other delegates who you don't already know, and of course engage with them

Afternoon session

3.30 ACWW Associated Country Women of the World : overview of changes to the organisation – latest information – Lyn Braico ACWW Trustee & South Pacific Area President

4.00 Country Kitchens – interactive session to make Ras el Hanout, special Moroccan spice mix

4.20 3 minutes quiet time to write up from this afternoon – what worked, what didn't, what could be improved

4.25 Draw 5 raffles

4.30 CLOSE

Own dinner arrangements

Saturday February 17:

Registration opens 8am

New set of raffle tickets for today, don't forget to purchase yours. Also the stock table is open at each break.

8.50am Please take your seat ready to start proceedings.

Housekeeping and Conference Rules

Morning session:

9am talking PUMPKINS - Caroline Jones and Alison Alexander OAM
Agriculture & Environment Committee – Product of the Year 2024

10am AM TEA: Please make an effort to introduce yourself to at least two other delegates who you don't already know.

10.30 Unfortunately former Senator Claire Moore cannot attend – she sends everyone her deepest apologies. We will have a mystery session in this time frame.

11am All about the ACWW South Pacific Area Conference 2024 – Lyn Braico

11.20 move with Country Kitchens ...

11.30 International member competitions – let's talk about content and judging pathways

12 noon LUNCH: During the lunch break ensure you've got your raffle tickets and visited the other display tables. : Please make an effort to introduce yourself to at least two other delegates who you don't already know.

Afternoon Session:

1pm Guest speaker – JANE CORNISH – living in MOROCCO

1.30 Craft session

2.30 Country Kitchens resources

3PM events, traditions and culture of MOROCCO – Barb McMillan & friends

3.30 comfort break – water, bathroom etc

3.50 Drumdance introduce the sounds and dance of Morocco

4.20 quiet time to write up from today : what worked, what didn't, how the day have been improved?

4.25 Draw 5 raffles

4.30 CLOSE

6pm for 6.30pm CONFERENCE DINNER - don't forget it's BYO:

dress is HAREM – floaty skirts or harem pants,

After dinner :

draw 5 raffles

Lucky numbers

Sunday February 18:

Registration opens 8am

Last chance : New set of raffle tickets for today, don't forget to purchase early.
Also the stock table is open at registration and morning tea. Closing at 10.30am

8.30am Please take your seat ready to start proceedings.

Housekeeping if required

8.35am Calendar dates for 2024 : Celebrate "International" via

- March 08 United Nations International Women's Day
- April 29 Women Walk the World - worldwide involvement
- October 15 United Nations Rural Women's Day
- Perhaps coincide your branch or division International Day event with these celebrations?
- Your Ideas for International Day celebrations
- Questions & Answers around International Officer Role – write down your questions ahead of time to ensure everyone learns from each other

9.00 Agriculture in MOROCCO –cereals, staple vegetables, fruits —

Agriculture & environment committee (Michelle Pike for Jean Rosendahl)

9.25 Country Kitchens – sit less, move more

9.35 show and tell – talk about your item/s

10AM MORNING TEA Please make an effort to introduce yourself to at least two other delegates who you don't already know. Last chance for raffle tickets!

10.30 talking herbs and condiments of Morocco – Sheila Marshall

11am ACWW South Pacific Area Projects explained - Suzie Harwood/Barb McMillan

11.20 Introduction to ONTARIO, CANADA – Paula Hetherington

11.30 Offers to host 2025 State International Conference studying ONTARIO, CANADA
Distribution of profits from this 2024 Conference...

"Thank you" to support committees

11.45 quiet time to write up your thoughts / what worked, what didn't, what could be improved

11.50 Draw 5 raffles

Close Conference : sing, sing, sing

12.00 LUNCH and farewells

Agenda is subject to change

Thank you to all who attended the 2024 International Study Conference

Your participation is greatly appreciated!

CONNECTING WOMEN TO THEIR COMMUNITY, TO EACH OTHER AND TO THEIR OWN WELLBEING